YOUTH BUSINESS WEEK: Any students interested in attending Youth Business Week at Sonoma State University this summer from June 26th to the 30th please plan on coming to an informational meeting on Wednesday April 5th in the Library during 5th period. Chris Castillo will be here to discuss the fun and opportunities available in this exciting and innovative business program for teens. Participants explore many different aspects of business, team building and financial literacy. Come and sign up in the Career Center with Heidi if you would like to attend.

YOUR PROM DRESS AWAITS: Don't miss the Belle of the Ball Boutique Day on Sunday April 2nd -- Find the perfect dress and accessories for $10. Over 700 dresses are available to choose from and they have all colors, styles and sizes 0-26. This is a non-profit organization working to make the prom affordable and fun for everyone. For more information visit www.belloftheball.org or come see Heidi in the College & Career Center.

SENIORS: Project Grad Tickets are available in the office through Nancy Siebert. Tickets are $50.00 each. Make this evening a safe, fun filled part of your graduation and purchase your tickets early!

DROP IN TUTORING: Geometry tutoring on Thursday has been cancelled. Tutoring for Algebra will be on Wednesdays until 4:00 as scheduled.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: Are you worried about the possibility of a military draft? Confused about draft registration, conscientious objector status, delayed entry programs? HOPE, the High School Outreach and Education Program is providing free draft/military counseling. This counseling will also be available every Monday at 12:15 in the Library. For more information, call Dr. Drew Mazer @ 823-2711.

ANOTHER REMINDER TO SENIORS: Please keep checking the senior bulletin board or the scholarship board in the College & Career Center for new scholarships. I am receiving new ones often now and you don't want to miss the deadlines!
